

1. There is ONE extra, unnecessary word in EACH line. Find the word and write it in the blank space on the right:

Example: Hi, I'm name Sara. I work for NET magazine. _____ name

A lot of people read our magazine. Teenagers are read it, of course. 1. _____

I don't like to doing the same things every day. I write 2. _____

to stories in the magazine. I also work on the horoscope and 3. _____

the problem page is too. I usually work in my office 4. _____

but sometimes I interview about people. At the moment 5. _____

I'm never talking to children at Christmas parties. 6. _____

2. Fill in the blanks with the suitable possessive pronouns of adjectives.

Tom and Peter attend the school which is not far from _____ homes. I go to the same school with _____ but my home is not so close to it as _____ .

3. Put the verbs in the brackets into the correct tense.

2 November, 2001

Dear Julie,

I can't believe it's already November. In July, Clarie and Dan _____ (get married). It _____ (be) a lovely wedding in spite of the bad weather. As the waiter _____ (carry) in the wedding cake, he _____ (drop) it. We _____ (not know) whether to cry or laugh.

Clarie and Dan _____ (live) in Dan's old flat for a while, but now they _____ (have) their own house near London. They _____ (live) there for a few months now. We _____ (not see) them since they _____ (move), but they _____ (come) here for Christmas.

Love,
Lucy

4. Make comparisons using the words in bold letters on the left:

- EXPENSIVE The Ferrari is not as _____ as the Jaguar.
- WET Last Monday was _____ day of the season.
- FAR York is _____ from London than Leeds.
- LAZY Cats are _____ than dogs.
- BAD Yesterday's weather was _____ than today's.
- CLEVER Craig has excellent marks, he is _____ in the classroom.
- SLOWLY You should drive _____ in the city than on the motorway.

5. Fill in the blanks with a/an, the or /

Most people in _____ Britain send cards. _____ British started sending cards in Victorian times. _____ first only reach people sent cards at Christmas but soon everybody was sending them. Now you can buy _____ card for every special day and holiday. You can buy cards to say "sorry" or "_____ good luck". British people buy more than _____ hundred Christmas cards every year.

6. Choose one of the verbs given below and fill in the blanks with the correct form/tense of the verb.

LIGHT TAKE CARE LOOK FLY HELP PUT GET

- a) The firemen _____ out the fire yet.
- b) My grandmother _____ after me when I was a child.
- c) A lot of planes _____ off every day.
- d) _____ yourself to some sandwiches.

7. Complete conversation. Make questions for the underlined words/phrases.

A: _____

B: On Sunday I went to a football match.

A: _____

B: They say there were about ten thousand spectators.

A: _____

B: You mean the ticket for the match? Oh, I was lucky. I paid only 250 dinars for it.